

Time to Build New in Norwalk!

There is no better time than right now to build your new home in Norwalk. Inventory for existing homes listed for sale is at record lows. Homes listed in Norwalk are selling faster than most other communities in the Des Moines Metro.

We invite you to spend an evening or weekend driving around Norwalk, checking out the lots available for new construction, who knows, you might find your dream home overlooking a golf course, with a view of downtown Des Moines or even a lot with the best seat in town for July 4th fireworks. Scroll to view the following pages and see where the latest plats are being developed. New homes and open lots are still available in these areas but are moving fast.
