

Three Council Seats Up for Election

New process for submitting candidacy papers

July 14, 2015 – Three City Council seats will be up for election this fall. These seats all carry a four-year term and are currently held by incumbents Eric Delker, Kyle Jackson and Council appointee Tom Greteman.

New this year, all completed candidacy papers are to be filed with the Warren County Auditor's office at 301 N. Buxton in Indianola. The filing period runs from August 24, 2015 to 5:00 p.m. on September 17, 2015. Potential City Council candidates may still pick up their nomination papers and affidavits of candidacy at Norwalk City Hall or online at www.norwalk.iowa.gov.

The top vote getter of the November 3, 2015 election will be seated at the November 19, 2015 Council meeting. Mr. Greteman, appointed by the council last fall to fill the seat vacated by Ms. Jamie Sylvester upon her untimely passing, currently fills this seat. Questions can be directed to Norwalk City Clerk Jodi Eddleman at 981-0228 ext. 2232 or the Warren County Auditor's Office at 961-1020.
