Bike Safety Day

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

(Register at the Parks and Rec office)

Date: Saturday, May 7

Registration: Apr 4 to Apr 15

The Norwalk Police Department, Norwalk Fire Department along with Norwalk Parks and Recreation is sponsoring a Bike Safety Day. Participants will bring their bikes to the Norwalk Public Safety Building parking lot and get their bike inspected and ride the safety course. Guest speaker will be on hand to talk about the bike safety. After the safety course, Mayor Tom Phillips along with Police Chief Greg Staples will lead a bike ride in the area surrounding the Public Safety Building. Bike helmets must be worn during the ride. Each registered child (age 5 to fifth grade) will have a chance to win door prizes. Drawing will take place immediately following the ride and you must be present to win. Parent volunteers are needed for the ride. You are encouraged to ride along side with your child if under the age of 7.

Free t-shirts will be given to pre-registered participants along with bike helmets (if needed.) We will hold this event rain or shine! Refreshments will be provided.
